ANNUAL REPORT 2007
REPORT FROM THE PRESIDENT

Arthur Wallace moved his family from Milwaukee, Wisconsin to Mid-Missouri this past year in search of a fresh start. After seeking treatment for his alcoholism, Arthur turned to Job Point for help in finding employment with career advancement potential. With funding from your United Way, Job Point staff provided Arthur with the guidance and training he needed to begin his new career. I met Arthur a few months ago and he beamed as he shared his story and his recent employment success working at a local drug and alcohol treatment center for adolescents. Now that's impact!

This past fall, Betty Jefferson's life was brightened by volunteers from the Boone County Council on Aging who repainted her house, cleaned up her yard and even planted a bed of yellow flowers. "They just came and gave my house a beautiful facelift," said Betty, "I just know that if the house could talk, it would jump up and say, 'I'm beautiful, look how clean I am.'" Now that's impact!

Bobby was in a hurry to finish his lunch and clean his cabin last summer at camp. He wanted to get outside to swim and play games with all of his new friends. Like Bobby, they all have diabetes and while they were just being kids at summer camp, the staff at Camp Hickory Hill taught Bobby and his friends how to monitor their disease and most importantly that they were just like other kids. Now that's impact!

These three stories represent a tiny fraction of the impact your United Way had in our community this past year. Yet, I think they illustrate very well that the impact your support provides is real...very real. They also serve to remind me of the many things I have for which I am thankful. No, I haven't forgotten that Thanksgiving is months away. It's just that I am thankful to live and work in a dynamic, vibrant and caring community. Here is just a sample of the caring impact your United Way had this past year:

The staff and volunteers of our 32 member agencies provided vital and timely health and human services to over 100,000 of our friends, families and co-workers this past year.

Our Agency Relations Committee and allocations volunteers, under skilful guidance of Stephen Gaither and Sabrina McDonnell, diligently reviewed needs of our community. Along with our Board of Directors, funds were wisely allocated and invested to yield significant impact for kids, families and the elderly.

Our United Way Senior Collaborative gained much traction this past year, thanks to the tireless leadership of Karen Miller and many others with a passion for our increasing number of seniors. We are moving even closer to becoming a more senior-friendly community. Boone County took major steps this past year with the formation of a community-wide Early Childhood Education Coordinating Board. In addition, United Way assembled a special task force to better position agencies providing critical early childhood development programs. Thank you Lynda Baumgartner for representing our United Way in both of these new initiatives.

Chair Susan Bartel and her marketing committee executed a long desired marketing strategy to better inform, educate and motivate the citizens in Mid-Missouri on the impact that your United Way has everyday.

Please review details later in this report on how thousands of United Way Day of Caring volunteers completed hundreds of hands-on community projects over the last 14 years.

ALLOCATIONS VOLUNTEERS

Allocations is the cornerstone of United Way because it's the one place where determination of the community's ability to provide funds meets with planning of services. After Allocations volunteers have determined program and funding needs for the year, recommendations are made to the United Way Board of Directors for final determination. Allocations volunteers give over 1100 hours to this annual process. We extend sincere appreciation to all 2006 Allocation volunteers.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

UNITED WAY IMPACT IS ABOUT MUCH MORE THAN FUNDRAISING.
IMPACT IS ABOUT PEOPLE.

YOUR UNITED WAY IMPACTS THE LIVES OF MORE THAN 100,000 MID-MISSOURIANS EACH YEAR.

UNITED WAY EARLY CHILDHOOD INITIATIVES
United Way Board volunteers have made Early Childhood Development (ECD) a priority. The research is clear: when kids are not ready for kindergarten they often stay behind during the rest of their school years and beyond. Kindergarten readiness is part of the process to prepare for the workforce and jobs of the future. United Way is working to improve local ECD programs through local collaborations as well as at statewide and national levels.

UNITED WAY DAY OF CARING
United Way Day of Caring is an opportunity for volunteers to do hands-on community service projects as well as learn about our agencies and what they do. Last year, 556 volunteers including people from 27 local companies worked on 47 projects in the community. Volunteers spent the day cleaning, painting, and doing general repair work in homes and in a few of our member agencies’ offices. United Way can truly say that we actually, physically are building a better community.
